

2017 “LUCCIO” SANGIOVESE ROSE’

Colour: Bright salmon pink.

Aroma: Displays fresh cranberry, red cherry and watermelon aromas with hints of confectionary - spotlessly clean and very attractive.

Palate: Lovely concentration of bright cranberry and cherry fruit with a fleck of cream and just enough acid to balance the small amount of residual sweetness in the wine.

Summary: A perfect wine for the spring and summer months ahead. For those who reside in the warmer climates feel free to drink it whenever you feel like it! Try it with a salumi platter or with your favourite Indian curry - you can't go wrong. Drink it upon release and within the next 12 – 18 months.
